“True service is always mutually beneficial. When we care for others, we are also nurturing ourselves.”

Join Senseis Jules Shuzen Harris, Bruce Seiryu Blackman and Barbara Shoshin Craig and Edward Sangetsu Sullivan for residential Zen practice at St. Raphaela Center. A sesshin is an opportunity to return to ourselves, listen to the silence and savor quiet, natural surroundings and is recommended to anyone who is sincerely interested in experiencing intensive Zen training. Through zazen, teaching and practicing with the sangha, we will celebrate practice, and illuminate the Three Treasures as living realities in our own lives. Each day will include zazen, chanting, private interviews and dharma talks. The study text will be The Bodhisattva Ideal: Wisdom and Compassion in Buddhism by Sangharakshita (available on Amazon).
