Soji Zen Center's monthly one-day retreat (zazenkai) is a great way to experience a short, intensive meditation retreat. The day consists of zazen (seated meditation), kinhin (walking meditation), oryoki* (meal), dokusan (interview) and samu (work practice). Registration IS required so we will have the correct amount of food. When registering, please confirm if you will need bowls.

*This describes the oryoki, a Zen student's eating bowls. The use of oryoki during sesshin/retreats/zazenkais provides an opportunity for us to deepen our practice. Paying careful attention to the way in which we take our meals, our true relationship between ourselves and our food is made clear. Emphasizing each simple activity, we continually learn our way.
